

Mr. Young's proposal would seem to be the simplest of those about the no-code license for amateur radio. The morse code is still viable and at 5wpm literally anyone can master it. Amateur radio is a privilege and the minimum morse code requirement would be sufficient.